

Go Rural

Go Rural Skills Development and Information Day Saturday 3rd March 2012 Warilda Conference Centre, Brisbane

Will you be in 2nd year Medicine in March 2012?

Are you interested in learning more about rural health opportunities for placements or as a career choice?

Would you like to develop your rural clinical skills?

Health Workforce Queensland will be holding a one day Skills Development Day as part of the Go Rural campaign funded by the Department of Health and Ageing. It is intended that this day provide you with information and skills that will help you decide on considering a career in rural health.

You will hear from the rural health clubs at your respective universities and a young doctor currently working in a rural hospital. These presentations will highlight not only the varied work opportunities but lifestyle as well. Organisations central to your decision making will also have information on hand for you to collect. You will also be rotated through 4 skills stations that will be facilitated by some of the best practitioners in the country. These skills include plastering, suturing, advanced life support and a trauma scenario.

If you have never considered rural health, then why not come along and give it a go?!
