

Go Rural Information Evening Wednesday 14th March 2012 The Stamford Plaza, Brisbane

Find out what rural general practice has to offer YOU!

As part of the Go Rural campaign Health Workforce Queensland will be holding a dinner and information evening to help you to consider a career in rural health.

On the night you will hear from two inspirational doctors who will share their rural experience. There will also be a chance to hear from our expert representative's and ask them questions in regards to recruitment, locum and family support services that are available.

You and your partner are invited to enjoy a complimentary 3 course dinner at the five star Stamford Plaza Hotel with fine wine and a chance to win the lucky door prize.

The lucky door prize consists of a 'Rural Weekend Getaway' at the stunning Ballandean Estate Winery in Stanthorpe. The weekend is inclusive of:

- 2 nights' accommodation at Akuntree Cottage Ballandean
- 1 Antipasto Platter lunch for 2 at the Barrelroom Café at Ballandean Estate
- 1 bottle of sparkling wine
- Breakfast provisions

Also to help you refresh your clinical skills when considering working in a rural location, Health Workforce Queensland will provide all attendees on the night with a voucher for a 25% discount on one of their medical training workshops in 2012. For more information on Health Workforce Queensland Medical Education and Training please go to www.healthworkforce.com.au.

If you have never considered rural health, then why not come along and dare to be inspired?!
